

GOSPEL SATURATED COMMUNITY: PEOPLE THAT ARE GOSPEL FLUENT

Discussion Questions

THE CONVERSATION

- What percentage of your people would you say have 1-2 people in their lives, apart from their spouse, that they talk to about trusting Jesus in the everyday issues of life?
- What level of hunger or resistance do you find in your church toward community?
- What habits/rhythms in our church have the greatest potential to promote Gospel-saturated community? What habits/rhythms in our church have the greatest potential to hinder Gospel-saturated community?
- Review Jeff Vanderstelt's Fruit to Root illustration (see resources.) Practice walking through the exercise with someone in your group.
- Would you say your church is more focused on being efficient in the means or more focused on being effective on the end of whole-hearted transformation? What steps could you take to bring more focus to being effective in the pursuit of whole-heart transformation?
- What would you have to let go of in order to be more effective in the pursuit of whole-heart transformation?
- What help will you need internally or externally to move in this direction?
